

UPEACE Centre Study Abroad Programs:

“The University for Peace is such a unique place to study. The combination of traditional academics and theory with service learning provided me with an educational and cultural experience that I will never forget and that I can use through my career.” ~ Alex Guiriba, San Jose State University

“This course was truly a transformative experience. Every aspect of it exceed my expectations” ~ Lisa Domeshek, MBA Student, Maryland University

“Meeting so many visionary Costa Rican social entrepreneurs made the seminar an incredible experience.” ~ Michael Keating, Harvard Business School

“This seminar touched my heart and mind. I left with a wealth of new ideas to implement. Some of the information I learned will help me increase cooperation and decrease conflict with my family and in the community organizations I work with. Thank you, UPEACE!” ~ Connie Watson, Psychology Professor, Delta College

“This experience allowed me to broaden my knowledge of Costa Rica’s business structure and culture through the various planned excursions; it has also given me the opportunity to learn, grow and make friends that will last a lifetime.” ~ Jen Knezevic, MBA student, Arcadia University

“Studying abroad in Costa Rica with UPEACE really gave me a ‘real-life’ example of all the things I’ve been learning in class. If you get the chance, go for it!” ~ Leslie Lane, Northern Kentucky University

“This workshop solidified for me the justification and conceptual framework for CSR. Business & social development needs were expertly communicated, and participants were given the chance to implement their new knowledge in practical & effective ways.” ~ Laura Ellington, Founding Director, Intercultura Language & Cultural Centre

“I wish I had heard of UPEACE before this trip. The experience they provided was phenomenal, and it was educational, culturally enlightening, and overall an amazing experience.” ~ Kristing Danilczyk, MBA Student, Maryland University
